BITTEN BY A DOG.

Narrow Escape of a Colored Woman in the West End.

A colored woman, whose name could not be learned last night, had a narrow escape from death a few nights ago. She was employed as a domestic in the house on Armistead avenue occupied by Mr. Vaughan Jones and Officer Leslie Curtis. Mr. Jones, it is said, is the owner of several dogs, one of the female members of the kennel being now engaged in rearing a family.

It was this particular animal that came near ending the life of the colored girl. In the performance of her household duties it became necessary for her to step into the yard, and a

SATURDAY AT SCHONE'S DAM.

How Ike Smith's Hospitality Got Him Into Trouble.

The residence of Ike Smith, on Schoue's Dam, this county, was the sense Saturday night at 11 o'clock, of one of the liveliest rows witnessed in this section of the country for many a day. All the participants were colored, and the blood-red rum quaffed on the occasion is said to have been guaranteed to produce instanter the most brilliant effects in the way of convivial pyrotechnics. Smith is a farmer and his house is famous in the neighborhood as a place for social gatherings. The latchstring is always on the outsid and a rule of the old man's life is to cheerfully entertain strangers lest unawares he should deprive himself of an angel's visit.

But for once at least Ike's howntal.

speed, and conditions at once dazzling and dangerous quickly ensued. Alarm seized the hospitable Isaac and, bringing his patriarchal brogans down on the floor with a report like that made by a rapid fire gun on a battleship, demanded that the current be turned off. But no one heeded the admonition. On the other hand, so the patriarch says, Abe Cooper made a break for the fence, snatched off a picket and, returning to the house, whacked him over the head.

fence, snatched off a picket and, returning to the house, whacked him over the head.

With this bedlam broke loose. One or two timid females announced their intention of fainting unless order was immediately restored. But even this, emphasized by a series of screams that cut the night air like a knife, failed to restore bence. It seemd, on the contrary, to accelerate the motion of the whirting dynamo for immediately there was a crash, as if a regiment of infantry had opened fire on the house, and the floor was covered with broken window sashes and small pieces of glass. While all this was going on the attack on Smith was renewed, and, to use his worn wards, he was left "dead to this world." About the same time a pistol shot rang out and James Simpson, with the blood running from a flesh wound in his leg, made a break for the outside. He then ran to the house of County Officer Shepherd, who hastened to Smith's and put a stop to the row. Smith was arrested and gave assurance that he would appear here today for trial before Justice Saunders.

The real cause of the row will probably never be known. It is said, however, that it grew out of the fondness of Abe Cooper and Bennie Newsom for Delia Temple. Cooper escorted the woman to Smith's and a little later Newsom drove up and asked her to ride with him. Her refusal, it is alleged, brought on the trouble.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK May 16.—The stock market was rather dull today and the tone was heavy throughout. The prices never got away from the opening quotations except in a few cases. The opening was made in sympathy with London, where the heavfness in all departments continues on account of the uneusiness caused by Secretary of the Colonies Chamberlin's speech. There was an outside demand for stocks in the first which absorbed the offerings for London account, and worked some recovery for the low point. The demand was soon satisfied, however, and prices drifted for the remainder of the mand was soon satisfied, however, an prices drifted for the remainder of the day, not far from the low level. light. Some of the streets in that section are aimost impassible during the period of moonless nights in the wet season. Owing to the fact that no provision worth speaking of has been made for drainage a number of the streets are flooded. Holt street in particular suffers in this way and on account of the absence of lights residents of that thoroughfare are compelled to wade to their homes.

Holt street people want a light near the residence of Dr. Selden, at the corner of the short street leading out to the Wooten cottage. This point is within the corporate limits of Hampton and will have to be provided for by the council. Another is needed at the corner of Jackson and Holt streets, one block further out. This is outside of town and will have to be furnished by the county. These two lights are badly needed and would not only liuminate the localities named, but would be worth as much to the people of that portion of the West End as no officer.
